

Come to Pennsylvania and get to know America.

Visit Pittsburgh, the Renaissance City. You'll see a reborn architectural, cultural, educational and entertainment center at the point where the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers form the Ohio.

Swim and sail at Presque Isle State Park. It's on Lake Erie, one of the most impressive inland lakes in the world.

Wander through the Pennsylvania Dutch Country and go to the Kutztown Folk Festival.

Visit Harrisburg &
State Capitol with

Come to Lancaster and meet some of Pennsylvania's Dutch. You can also visit the birthplace of Robert Fulton, inventor of the Steamboat.

Walk around Gettysburg and see where one of the bloodiest battles of the Civil War occurred. And where President Lincoln made his stirring Gettysburg Address.

and see Pennsylvania's its massive dome.

Come to Valley Forge and see where George Washington and the Continental Army were almost beaten by the snow and cold of winter.

Visit Hershey, Pennsylvania, the home of the Hershey Bar. You can tour "Chocolate World" and follow cacao beans on their way to becoming Hershey Bars.

Relax in the Poconos for fun every day in the year for everyone in the family. Tennis, hiking, skiing, snowmobiling, camping, boating and lots more in unspoiled natural beauty.

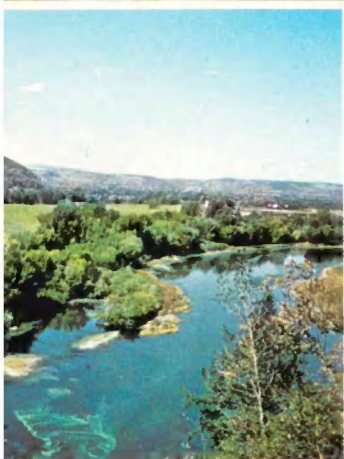

Come to York, Pennsylvania, and see the Currier and Ives Museum.

Journey through Pennsylvania's many underground caves. You'll travel by water through these awesome natural wonders created by the relentless action of water dripping on stone.

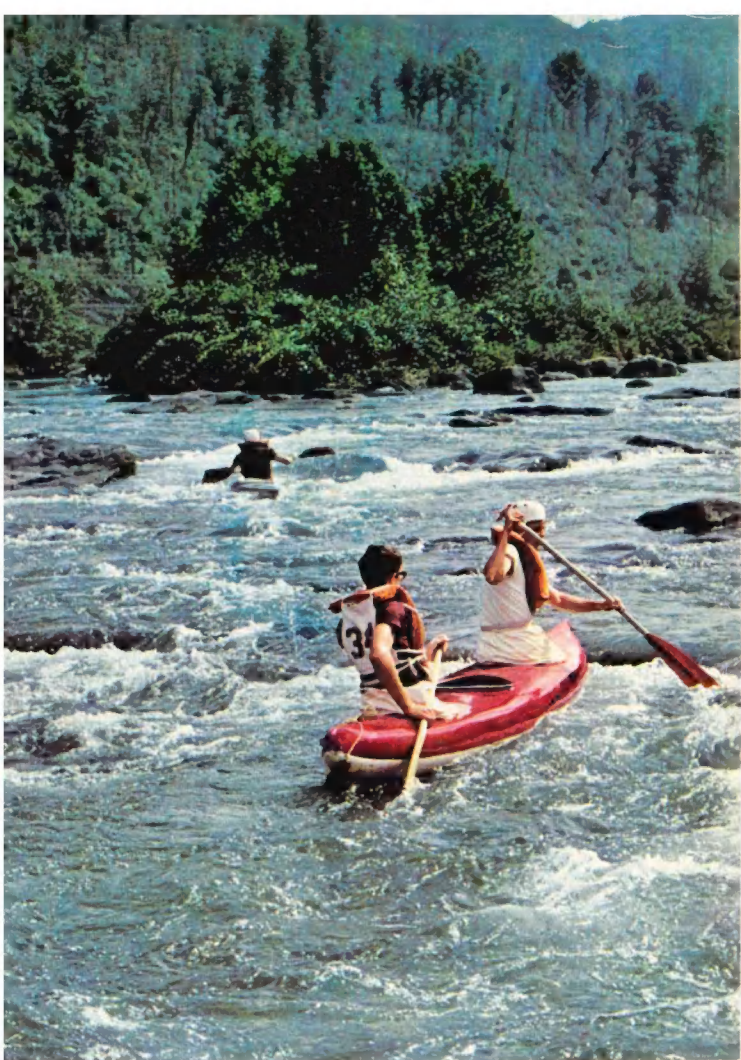

Come to Philadelphia and see the Liberty Bell. Inside Independence Hall, you can almost hear Ben Franklin saying "We must all hang together, or surely we shall all hang separately."

Come to Washington Crossing State Park. You'll see where General Washington and his army crossed the Delaware and surprised the enemy Hessian troops.

Take a trip to the Endless Mountains, where the Susquehanna River winds its way between the sylvan walls and the view changes from placid pools to exciting rapids at every turn.

Explore the Laurel Highlands, lush wooded acres of rolling mountains, deep green valleys and free flowing fresh water rivers and streams wherever you look.

Bicentennial Pennsylvania

So your children can tell their children.

Come to Pennsylvania. You'll get to know America.
And maybe you'll get to know yourself.

